

Balistreri, Jr. John Joseph

Date missing: September 15, 2017
Missing from: Middleton, Dane County
Age: 36 years old
Date of Birth: September 4, 1981
Sex: Male
Race: White
Height and Weight: 5'7 - 5'9, 170 - 180 pounds
Hair: Brown
Eyes: Hazel
Piercings: His ears are pierced
Tattoos: his last name "Balistreri" in Old English script on his back, a skull with hair on the top of his right shoulder, the phrase "Smile now, cry later" with masks and stars on his left arm, a worm with a hat and eyes on his upper left arm, hearts with "Mom" and "Dad" banners and the name "Arianna" with stars on his lower left arm, and a cross inside of his lower right arm.
Sister: Amy LaPlant.
Exclusions: 1

Case Owner: Middleton PD
(608) 824-7300
Agency Case Number 17-008763

Details of Disappearance

Last known address:

1635 Maple Street, Middleton, WI 53562

Amy LaPlant says she last saw her brother on September 11, 2017. She had picked him up from work and dropped him off at the home he was staying in on Maple Street. LaPlant says her brother was going through "personal things," and was considering moving back in with her. At the time of his disappearance, Balistreri was in recovery for drug addiction. He also has a daughter.

More Information

NamUs

Charley Project

his Facebook

Websleuths

Legal Issues

Bank robbery

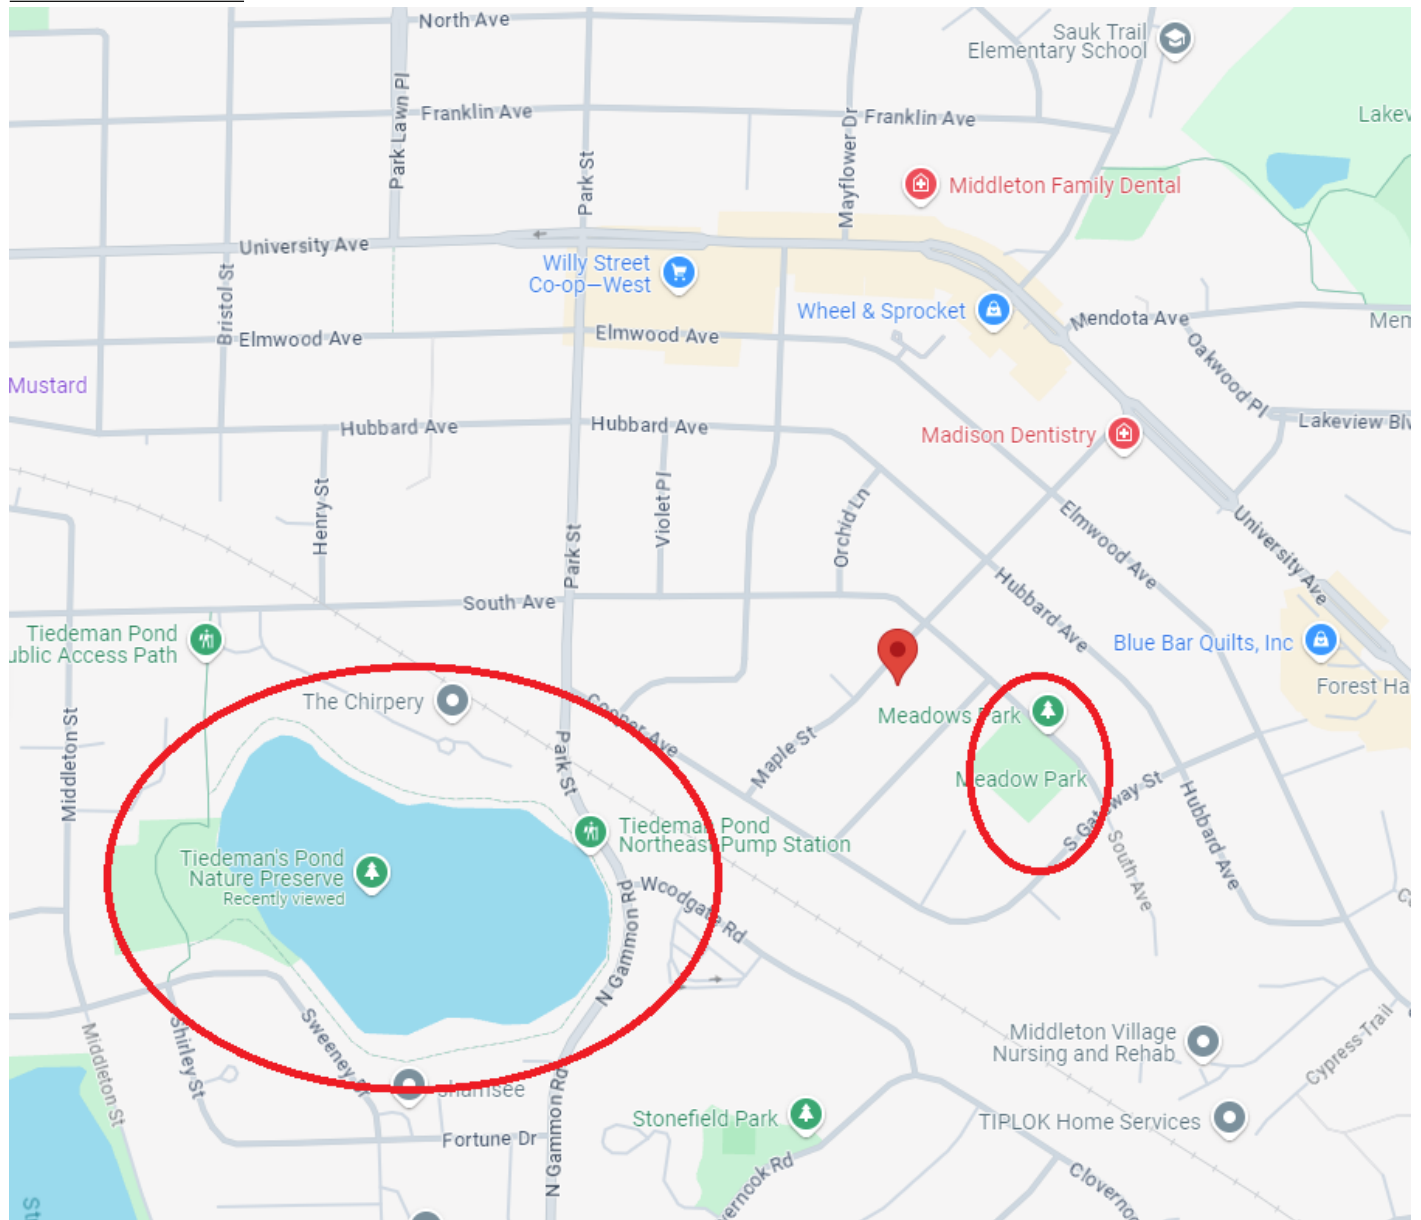

case 1

Mugshot

Status: ACTIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION

Sub-Status: ABSCOND

Places I'd search

Revision #25

Created 22 October 2024 03:48:01 by Not Forgotten

Updated 14 November 2024 16:39:38 by Not Forgotten