ANDREW F. ZOBAL, SHERIFF • ZACHARY U. BOARD, UNDERSHERIFFPRESS RELEASE

Today marks 6 months since Leya Stewart went missing. During the course of the investigation, the Juneau County Sheriff's Office, with the assistance of the Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI), Wisconsin State Crime Lab, and the Wisconsin Statewide Intelligence Center (WSIC), have conducted over 70 interviews, several vehicle searches, ground searches, and drone searches. We are still looking for anyone with information regarding Leya's disappearance.

Today, we are releasing images of vehicles that were seen in the area of 19th Ave north of 43rd St on July 4th, 2023 between approximately 1:15 pm and 2:00 pm. We believe that these subjects may be witnesses and we are looking to speak with them. Again we believe that they are witnesses and are not suspected in anyway in the disappearance of Leya.

If you can identify any of the vehicles in the photos, please contact the Juneau County Sheriff's Office and speak with Detective Shaun Goyette #14. The phone number for the Sheriff's Office in (608) 847-5649.
