Details of Disappearance

He was out grouse hunting with his son and basically vanished. His son never got over it. He was last seen in the woods near the area of Military Road (FR 2199) about 0.45 miles north of Kentuck Lake Road (FR 2465) This can be difficult to find on a map - but it's within Nicollet National Forest. FR 2178 is an alternate name for Military Road and in some places its 2183. Other sources state it as Kentuck Road & Federal Forest Road 162 just north of State Highway 70.

Trabert, Leo Paul

Missing Since: April 9,1992
Missing From: Wauwatosa, Milwaukee County
Age: 77 years old
DOB: 2 JAN 1915
Sex: Male
Race: White
Height and Weight 5'11, 210 pounds
Clothing: A plaid flannel shirt, a navy blue jacket, dark-colored pants and a blue captain's hat.
Hair: Grey, full white beard
Eyes: brown, wears glasses
Parents: George & Caroline Pfieffer Trabert
Exclusions: 2

Case Owner: Wauwatosa PD
(414) 471-8430
Agency Case Number 92-4762

Dentals: Available
Fingerprints: Not Available
DNA: Available

Details of Disappearance

Trabert was last seen in Wauwatosa on April 9, 1992. He lived on Swan Boulevard. His wife was visiting friends that morning, and when she came home, she found a goodbye note from her husband; he wrote, "I think the best birthday present I can give you is to disappear." He left all his medications behind at home, as well as his eyeglasses.

A bus driver recalled picking up a man matching Trabert's description near his home that morning, but didn't remember when the passenger got off. Trabert's family doesn't think he would have ridden on a bus or train for very long, because his back and leg problems made it uncomfortable to sit for an extended time period. An extensive search of the area turned up no indication of his whereabouts.

Trabert is a World War II veteran who injured his back while serving in the Army. He was declared legally dead in 1999, and his wife died about a year later. His case remains unsolved.
