Details of Disappearance

Amber L. Wilde was six months pregnant at the time of her disappearance. She had eight piercings in each ear. Amber was last seen in the evening at her residence in the vicinity of the 2000 block of August St. in Green Bay. Her 1988 Subaru GL was located, more than a week later, abandoned in a parking lot at a Green Bay sports bar, on the south side of Lombardi Access Road, near Lambeau Field in Green Bay with her purse and cell phone in the trunk and the keys in the ignition. The last person to drive the car was likely larger than Amber, because the seat was pushed back from the steering wheel. There are also some fingerprints that investigators have not been able to identify.

Winkler, Christopher James

Missing Since: February 16, 1987

Missing From: Burlington, Racine County

Age: 19 years old

Date of Birth: July 31, 1967

Sex: Male

Race: White

Height and Weight: 5'11 - 6'2, 190 - 220 pounds

Clothing: A gray jacket (possibly leather), blue jeans, brown work boots or work shoes, possibly a flannel shirt over a thermal shirt

Hair: Brown

Eyes: Blue

Marks: a round two-inch scar above his knee

Parents: Oliver & Jean Reuter Winkler

Exclusions: 29

Case Owner: Racine County Sheriff

(262) 886-2300

Agency Case Number 87-1

Details of Disappearance

Christopher Winkler disappeared under suspicious circumstances from Burlington on February 16, 1987. A month and a half later, his mother reported him missing. According to his family he would not have just left as he was very close to his family and would return for dinner every night. They assume he is deceased and have had a burial for him. He had been a suspect in a burglary before he went missing, but the charges were dropped. Winkler and three other local men broke into the Auctioneer's Inn on the 4600 block of Sheard Road in Dover on December 1, 1986. Over $3,500 worth of items were stolen.

The family believes he was killed by Bohner's Lake in Burlington.

Background from WiMissing, link at right.

On the evening of February 16th 1987, 19 year old Christopher Winkler knocked on his friend Donald's door. His friend wasn't at home. His friend's grandfather answered the door and observed that Christopher appeared upset and thought he was being followed by a black truck but asked him to leave. He has never been seen or heard from since.

Just two months prior in December of 1986, Chris and three of his friends were charged with breaking into Auctioneer's Inn, an upscale restaurant that Chris had previously done maintenance work at. Many rumors circulated that the restaurant was being used to smuggle drugs through seafood shipments for local biker gangs and during the burglary these drugs were stolen. These accounts, however, could never be verified.

After his disappearance Chris' family went to his house but his belongings were missing and his roommates refused to talk. Two of Chris' friends who were involved in the burglary owned a black truck, similar to the one seen following Chris on the night of his disappearance, and it mysteriously vanished shortly after.

Dentals: Unknown
Fingerprints: Unknown
DNA: Unknown

Details of Disappearance

His red car was located in the vicinity of the 700 block of Highland St. in Kewaskum. Steve has a medical condition and needs medication. He was distressed about the divorce he was going through at the time. He suffers from depression, memory loss and high blood pressure, and he needs medication, which he had not taken with him. Steve's family says it is out of character for him to just leave. A few weeks after his disappearance, there was a possible sighting of him in Campbellsport but it has never been confirmed. There is currently no evidence of foul play but law enforcement has not ruled it out.
